Extension of Deadline for Responses to Consultation

In November 2003, the Office of Utility Regulation published a consultation paper<sup>1</sup> entitled “Guernsey Posts Proposed Tariff Increases – Consultation Paper” following the submission of a proposal from Guernsey Post to change its tariffs. The OUR invited interested parties to respond to the consultation paper and indicated it would particularly welcome quantitative responses from interested parties that demonstrate how GPL’s price changes would affect them (either as businesses or private individuals) in order to assess the impact of GPL’s proposals.

The Director General is aware from initial feedback that a number of interested parties are assessing the implications for their businesses of the proposed increases and would benefit from the availability of some further time to prepare their responses.

To facilitate this, the Director General is extending the deadline for submission of responses to this consultation from 19th December 2003 to 7th January 2004.

This Information Notice replaces all previous communications regarding the deadline for submission of responses to OUR document 03/34.
